

Hotels Ottawa - IAACS

May is a busy month in the city of Ottawa. With Ottawa race weekend scheduled for May 23-24, an international security conference in town May 27-28, and Congress, Canada's annual conference of humanities and social sciences beginning on May 30, the city will be abuzz with energy and excitement. Given all of the activity in the city, we cannot stress enough the importance of booking hotels early in order to ensure that accommodations are secured at the best rate possible.

Below you will find a list of hotels, with accompanying information such as the average rate per night, their proximity to campus, a phone number and a link to their website. We have also provided information about alternative accommodations, such as the University of Ottawa residences, bed and breakfasts in the city as well as airbnb.

If you have questions about accommodations in the city, please do not hesitate to contact one of the program chairs would be happy to provide you with any of the additional information you require.

Residence – University of Ottawa

Suite-style:

Air-conditioned suite-style units include two separate bedrooms with a double bed in each room, a washroom with shower, kitchenette equipped with fridge and microwave, table and chairs. Please note kitchenware such as utensils and dishes are not provided. The rate is $99 per night + taxes.

Traditional Residence:

In the traditional residences, our single and double rooms are furnished with one or two single beds, a desk and chair, and an armoire for each guest. These residences have separate men's and women's washrooms on each floor and are not air-conditioned. The rates are $35 for the single room and $70 for the double + taxes.

Friel Residence

The Friel residence is located at the corner of Rideau and Friel, a ten minute walk from campus. Friel studio style accommodation is similar to the traditional style residence with multiple single beds (rooms with 2, 3 or 4 single beds) but have a private washroom in each studio. Some studios also have a kitchenette. Rates vary, depending on the type of studio, from $80 to $95 per night + taxes.
