

Oral History Education

Free 2-Day Workshop Invitation

Oral History and Education: Theories, Dilemmas, and Practices May 24-25, 2015

Oral history, life narratives, and storytelling as it relates to education

Join over twenty international experts - prominent oral historians, curriculum theorists, museum curators, teacher educators, and teachers in this field - to foster, exchange, and generate new ideas about what it means to use oral history to engage the past with students. Workshop participants will consider conceptual approaches, methodological limitations, and pedagogical possibilities of using oral history in education.

The link to the workshop schedule can be found on our Facebook page.

FREE REGISTRATION WITH MEALS INCLUDED

To register, email oralhistoryeducation@gmail.com with your full name, institutional affiliation, and contact information before May 10th, 2015.

Space is limited to 50 registrants.

Workshop location:

Desmarais Building (Room 12102)
55 Laurier Avenue East
Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1N 6N5

Funding for the workshop is provided by:

@ OralHistEd
OralHistEd

Oral History Education Project

Faculty of Education

education.uottawa.ca/

uOttawa