

II European Conference on Curriculum Studies

Curriculum Studies: Policies, perspectives and practices

Porto

Policies are about decisions taken at different levels, from policy makers to what is enacted in schools. They are also about how we can get closer to achieving aims of social justice.

FPCEUP

Perspectives shape what we understand by curriculum; they are about the theories that underlie curriculum decisions.

October
16th – 17th

ECCS
2015

Practices refer to what is enacted in schools and how meanings are produced as well as how we produce meanings in our daily life.

www.fpce.up.pt/eccs2015

2eccs@fpce.up.pt